

is about fifty-two cents per bushel. The soil being highly adapted to grazing, more attention, ~~of late, has~~ been paid to dairying than any other branch of agriculture.

NO. XI.

The following are the names of those who united in the organization of this Church :

SAMUEL STANTON,	MARTHA STANTON,
JOSEPH TANNER,	LYDIA TANNER,
MARGARET DIX,	RHODA STEARNS.

NO. XII.

The following are the names of the communicants on this occasion :—Joseph Tanner, Samuel Stanton, Abram Cramer, Joseph Cromwell, Margaret Dix, Rhoda Stearns, Martha Stanton, Lydia Tanner, and Anna Cramer.

NO. XIII.

This society was the first Temperance Society properly of Wayne County. The Damascus and Cohecton Temperance Society, organized in May, 1829, was located partly in New York State. But nine persons could be induced to join this society, at its organization. It became auxiliary to the Wayne County Temperance Society, in 1832. In 1834, the society took forty copies of "The Temperance Recorder."